Look at the first page of the first section. That is the kind of newspaper you might have if the press of America was not free. That is probably the kind of newspaper one often sees in the conquered countries.

Perhaps in the censored newspaper there would not be so many blank spaces marked, "Censored", but the space would be filled with stuff that, before publication, had to be approved by the editor, but by some dictatorial agent of the Censorship Bureau.

The American press, including this newspaper, has a voluntary censorship of its own. The prime purpose of this self imposed censorship is to print NO news that would give the slightest information of value to the enemy. The GCW leans over backwards in this effort. It could publish many, many things pertaining to the camp, the airport, the concentration camp and the particular vital war industry in Grenada. Most of the matter we COULD print would be live news. No body could do anything to us about it. Yet we follow the full spirit of the self imposed regulations.

How would YOU like to live in a country without a free press? How would you like to read day in and day out, week in and week out, year in and year out, matter that you KNEW had been "doctored"?

Beginning October 1 and ending October 9, is NEWSPAPER WEEK in the United States. During this week, the newspapers of the nation are undertaking to show how valuable they are to the several communities they serve. Take it to yourself. Would you not keenly miss the Commercial Appeal (or, anyway, your favorite daily newspaper whatever its name) to get information about things happening in the state, the nation and the world? Would you not keenly miss the weekly visits of the GCW which conveys to you the community news?

Would you not rather read the GCW and KNOW that Whyte Whitaker, whom you know and whom you trust, wrote the articles, or that Mabel Whitaker, whom ALL of you trust, wrote them, than to know that some fellow you never heard of censored the articles? Would you not prefer to read what Mabel and I BELIEVE to be the truth than to read something that SOMEBODY wanted you to read?

There is no news disseminating agency in existence more likely to print the truth than a small country weekly, like the GCW, which is beholden to nobody, but to its editor's sense of fairness and to his conscience. Many of the large newspapers are parts of chains. These chains often-times are owned by individuals or groups that seek to serve powerful cliques in New York or Chicago. The GCW, on the contrary, is responsible only to the conscience of its editor and its publisher. We are one of you. Our interests are your interests. You and I live or fall together.

Why then the GCW serves an useful purpose in the great scheme of things is for you and time to say; effectively, the free newspapers of America render service in no ways commensurate with the returns their owners receive.

Newspapers in the present era, when there is a greater demand than there is a supply of goods, face lean times. Advertising revenue has fallen almost to the vanishing point. (Do you remember the SMALL issue of the C. A. a couple of Sundays ago) I am sure that, if we had a cost accounting system, a check would disclose that we operate the GCW at a loss. The difference between going out of business and continuing in business is to be found in our job printing department. If YOU, the reader, would always remember that the same plant that helps preserve civilian morale, upholds the holy into the world under the "Stork Column", lays a wreath of words on the bier of him or her whose life's course has been run, promotes your pet schemes and performs countless FREE services; if YOU would remember that we get no revenue whatever from many of these things, YOU would in fairness remember us when there is commercial printing - from which we DO derive revenue - to be placed.

Mabel, my old lady, has ABSOLUTELY NO apartments or rooms listed for rent. You will save yourself and Mabel unnecessary time by heeding this advice. "No rooms today."

The GCW is not whining. It is making progress. If the old lady and I live, we will get by O. K. BUT we do think that the matters presented in the preceding paragraph merit YOUR earnest and sympathetic consideration. We do not want you to GIVE us anything, except a chance to show that we CAN produce good printing at reasonable, not cut throat, prices.

Area Office of OPA Set Up In Grenada

An area office to supervise control of rents in the four counties of Grenada, Montgomery, Carroll and Lafayette, has been set up in Grenada with office in the Salmon old building on the corner of First and Oak Sts.

Mr. E. L. Morrow has been appointed as Area Rent Director. Mr. Marshall Perry has been appointed as Area Rent Attorney. A permanent staff of at least eight persons will be employed in the office. During the early part of its service, at least 10 persons will be required.

This area has been officially designated as a Defense Rental Area. Within this area rent for living quarters, whether rooms, apartments, or houses, is supposed to be the rent received in March, 1942. However, where rent has been raised during the period from March to October, the tenant will not be able to receive any refund, but should have his or her future rent reduced to the March level.

As we understand it, the rent for the SAME quarters for say October shall not exceed the rent paid for the quarters in March, 1942. If, however, substantial improvements have been made, an increased rental commensurate with the capital investment, may be made, provided that were NOT used as rental property in March, 1942, it can be rented for a sum which, in the judgment of the Area Rental organization, is just and reasonable.

The policy of these gentlemen, who are in charge, we believe, is to live and let live, and not to use the lash of their authority to punish anyone, either landlord or tenant; but, on the contrary, to sit as judges in controversies between the landlord and the tenant, in cases where they themselves cannot arrive at a just solution of their common problem. It cannot be too greatly emphasized that no refund can be expected or received for any "overcharge" in rents prior to October.

This local organization is in need of some competent office help, and is anxious to buy or rent some typewriters.

Commends "All Out For Victory" Idea

Please send a copy of your Rotogravure "All Out For Victory" publication to my brother, Perry, whom I think will be much interested in the description of Camp McCain and other items of news from Grenada which you will remember is his home community and it has been in the U. S. Regular Army service since volunteering in World War I. He is now chief of the Surgical Service at Walter Reed Hospital.

You may make his address, Col. P. E. Duggins, M. C., Walter Reed General Hospital, Washington, D. C.

Please advise me of the cost of this copy and mailing.

Why, I think this is truly a worthwhile undertaking of yours to put this big project in permanent form for your readers, and I want to express my appreciation now, and am looking forward to owning a copy.

Your friend,
MRS. W. G. BROCK

Vassar Dubard, Jr. Receives Commission As Ensign

On September 8, 1942, W. V. Dubard, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Dubard, Jr., received his commission as Ensign, United States Navy, after several months course at Annapolis. He is now on submarine duty.

Mrs. Gretel Pass Eggleston Died Tuesday Morning

Mrs. Gretel Pass Eggleston died in Grenada Hospital, Tuesday morning, September 29, 1942.

She was a native of Old Bedford in the extreme Eastern section of Grenada county, having been born on March 19, 1871, being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jenkins.

She was a member of the Methodist Church from early girlhood. Until the village of Elliott was engulfed in the huge Camp McCain military reservation, she lived there. After the abandonment of Elliott a few months ago, she made her home in the H. H. Marter home in Garaysport.

She was an estimable woman, full of energy and zealous in any cause she espoused. She was in this office only a few weeks ago and appeared to be in prime health. She was much interested in the election of her nephew, Thomas L. Abernethy as Congressman from this district. His election gave her much joy.

She was buried in Grenada Wednesday. Surviving her are one son, Fred Pass, and four sisters, Mesdames Jennie Moore, of Indiana; Marie Abernethy, of Emporia; Mable Hayes, of Emporia; and George T. Townsend, of Emporia, to whom we express our deepest sympathy.

The GCW regrets that it has no more information about the life of this estimable lady.

Suggests That Something To Do About It

Holly Springs, Miss., Sept. 24, 1942

Dear Editor:

No, I haven't forgotten, just thought I would wait until you thought you were "sunk" on this preacher and then make you feel good. I'm enclosing $2.00. Date back to the time of my expiration and keep the GCW coming as long as you can stand it. Thanks.

I note your lament over the small vote polled in the election. It was ridiculous, wasn't it? Well, it will be that way, and ought to be, and worse, until we get somebody in the legislature with some common sense. People are tired running around hunting tax receipts for two years to vote for men who know no better than to pass such laws.

Why not go back to the simple and common sense plan to vote every man that is registered, who has paid his poll tax? Let the supervisors check the books and indicate every one who has not registered with O.

Why doesn't somebody do something about it? Yours truly,
F. Z. HUFFSTATLER

Cotton Ginning Report

Farm Buildings Can't Be Replaced

Warning that due to the need for strategic materials in the war effort and the control of building materials for war purposes it is becoming more difficult for farmers to replace farm buildings destroyed by fire, Dr. Roy L. Thompson, President of the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, this week urged farmers to redouble their efforts to prevent thousands of useless farm fires which destroy millions in farm property every year.

On farms in the three states of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, on which the Land Bank has loans, more than $167,000 alone was paid in insurance claims for fire losses in the past year. While insurance protects against the money loss, that is not all of the story. A destroyed building cannot be replaced now as easily as formerly and destruction by fire now means that possibly the building cannot be replaced for the duration and a needed facility cannot be used. On the 457 farm fire losses reported in the three states in the past year on which the Land Bank had loans, 47 were not covered by insurance.

"The importance of farm buildings to the farms in the Fifth Farm Credit District, which comprises the states of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, is further brought out by their values given below which represent more than 25 percent of the value of the farms as shown by statistics gathered by the Department of Agriculture as of April 1, 1940:

State	Value of Buildings
Alabama	$17,322,000
Mississippi	$29,182,000
Louisiana	$9,394,000

"For all of these reasons," Dr. Thompson said, "both from an individual and national standpoint, farmers will want to give serious attention to the prevention of fires on their premises."

Mrs. Mary Leigh Died In Memphis Saturday Night

Mrs. Mary Ray Leigh, member of one of Grenada's oldest and most distinguished families, died in the Baptist Hospital in Memphis on Saturday night, September 26, 1942 after only a short stay in that institution.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Betty Ray Moore, of Grenada, and the late Dr. Henry J. Ray, and was born in Grenada on February 19, 1876. She was a lifelong member of the First Baptist Church of Grenada. Her husband, the late J. Warner Leigh, who was a cotton planter of Grenada and Memphis died many years ago. She was a graduate of Grenada College.

Funeral services were held in Memphis on Sunday last by Rev. R. G. Lee, pastor of the Bellevue Baptist Church, after which her body was buried in Elmwood cemetery in Memphis.

Surviving her are her good mother, Mrs. Betty Ray Moore, of Grenada; six children, Mrs. S. C. White, Mrs. Clifford Davis, Miss Frances Leigh, Mr. John Leigh and Mr. Henry Leigh, all of Memphis, and Mrs. Sam Hall Garner, of Grenada; two sisters, Miss Eva Ray and Mrs. J. B. Perry, Sr. of Grenada, and one brother, Mr. H. J. Ray, of Grenada.

To the sorrowful ones, we extend our sympathy in the death of this splendid woman.

Change In County AAA Administrator Announced

Effective Wednesday, Mr. John Howard, who has served this county as AAA Administrator, has been transferred to a similar post in Tallahatchie county, while Mr. George H. Williams, of Grenada, a native of the free state, is taking Mr. Howard's place.

Official Vote

The official vote in the recent election revealed the following vote:

Eastland	74,747
Doxey	58,748

Among those who have commended the Grenada County Weekly on its intention to provide a rotogravure section, depicting the business and industrial conditions in Grenada and the activities of the contractors at Camp McCain and a supplement so permanent that it may be kept for future reference and future distribution are Mr. Homer J. Williams, President Charlie Liles of the Lions Club and President David Dubard of the Rotary Club.

Mr. Homer J. Williams says: "I feel that Whyte Whitaker should be supported, except in his political views, wholeheartedly in this undertaking in depicting on a rotogravure machine the scene surrounding the thousands of soldiers who will soon be in our midst. I am familiar with the rotogravure process, of printing and know that it is the last word in the graphic arts. I can be glad to have a scene reserved for my theatres in this building, not so much from an advertising point of view, but more especially from the community point of view, as I am of the opinion that any publicity that portrays the activities of the community, what we are doing, and making, instilled in this edition will be most helpful in at training the many new and permanent residents, after this emergency is over."

Rev. Liles, President of the Lions Club, states:

"There is no agency superior to a well conducted newspaper in molding public opinion, developing the public conscience and advancing the common interest of all the people. I feel that the Grenada County Weekly is accomplishing this fine result and I am confident that their plans to publish a rotogravure edition, dedicated to the community and the all out effort being made by our citizens, will be a worthwhile project."

Mr. Dubard states: "As President of the Grenada Rotary Club, I wish to commend you in your present undertaking of compiling and printing a rotogravure publication, which will set forth the historic, social, economic, industrial and other advantages of Grenada and section, surely any publication that causes our people to give more serious thought to the war effort is meritorious and I am confident that you will be supported wholeheartedly by all our loyal, patriotic and progressive citizens."

Scrap Drive To Start Under "Colonel" J. M. Talbert

The boys and girls of both the local and the county schools are part of a National Junior Army which will begin a great attack on Monday, October 5, when they launch their offensive against the metal shortage.

They are going out to find and bring in the things of which tanks and ships are made—rusty pipe, broken bed springs, air guns that won't shoot any longer—junk.

The local regiment is headed by "Colonel" J. M. Talbert, who ranks as a colonel in the junior service. County school superintendents, is colonel of the county's regiment.

Each school principal is a major in the Junior Army, and under each major come captains, the teachers.

School boys and girls of each class room will be the lieutenants, sergeants, corporals, and privates of the Junior Army here. Those who do well will be promoted, just like real soldiers in the fighting army.

A fighting army uses maps and scouts every foot of ground, and Colonel J. M. Talbert announces that the Junior Army will scout the town and country in the same way for pieces of junk. "So long as the junk remains ungathered," he said, "it is part of the starvation enemy of our steel mills, our war factories, and our fighting men. Local boys and girls are going to find and take prisoner all of that enemy in this vicinity." Contributed

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

FAITH IN CHRIST AS OUR PERSONAL SAVIOUR

LESSON TEXT—Acts 16:13-15; Romans 5:11.

GOLDEN TEXT—Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 5:1.

Salvation through Christ is the way, and the only way, into the Christian life; therefore, there could be no other subject more suitable than that of our lesson to begin our brief series of "Studies in the Christ Life."

Our lesson for today tells us first how one comes into a personal saving faith, and then gives Paul's statement of the result of saving faith in the changed life of the believer.

I. The Opened Heart (Acts 16:13-15).

Paul and his companions on their important errand for the Master, bearing the news of the gospel, had first known His guidance by hindrance, by the closed door; and then by the direction of the Spirit into the open door, revealed in the vision of the man of Macedonia.

Here in Philippi they found not only an open door, but an open heart, one which the Holy Spirit had made ready for the preaching of the Word of God. "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Rom. 10:17).

Note that while Lydia was a woman of ability and culture, and a worshiper of God, yet she needed the message of redemption through faith in Christ.

Lydia evidenced the truth of her profession of faith by open testimony and by a desire for fellowship in putting forward the work of God (v. 15). Salvation is by faith apart from works, but a saving faith is always one which works.

II. The Transformed Life (Rom. 5:1-11).

This is one of the great passages of Scripture, rich in doctrinal instruction, presenting through Paul an illuminating discussion of justification by faith.

This lesson affords an opportunity for teachers to learn and present to classes much needed truth along the line of Bible doctrine. There is not enough teaching of this type. People seem to prefer a little devotional study, or the discussion of current events, possibly in the light of prophecy. These are good, but it is of first importance that Christians be informed regarding doctrine.

We find in this Scripture the glorious transformation of life which comes to the one who takes Christ as Saviour, as we note the seven results of God's justifying grace.

1. Peace (v. 1). The human heart craves spiritual peace and knows that it can be found only when sin has been dealt with and put away. For sin cannot be condoned or ignored. There must be justification, and that can come only through Jesus Christ our Lord.

2. Grace (v. 2). A peace with God brings the peace of God into our hearts. We have that peace because we have by faith come into the place of God's favor. No longer strangers or outsiders, we have come in ("have access") to His place of grace and favor.

3. Hope (vv. 2b, 5a). Our faith not only brings present peace, but causes us to see future glory. Such a hope puts us in a right attitude toward God, and the things of life, including tribulations (v. 3), are rightly valued and understood. Even our troubles become evidences of His love in which we may glory.

4. Love (vv. 5b-8). God's love which gave His Son to die for our sins becomes the "shed abroad" portion of every believer in Him. It was an unmeasurably great love, and it all centers in Calvary.

5. Saved From Wrath (v. 9). The wrath of God is minimized or denied in much modern theology, but it is nonetheless a very "real and awful affection of the divine nature." But the Christ who died for sinners will surely deliver the saints from the wrath of God against sin.

6. Reconciled (v. 10). The death of Christ, which justified man has accepted by faith, brought reconciliation. Atonement had been made for sin, and the One who died is alive again, a living Saviour.

7. Joy (v. 11). And why not? Such a revelation of what our redemption includes should make every believer in Christ rejoice in God. The One who is the sinner's judge is the believer's joy! That is the glorious transformation which takes place when one believes.

Some unbeliever who has read these lines thus far must by now be eager to have these things true in his life. Well, why not? "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31). Then read again those majestic and joyful words in Romans 5:1: "Therefore being justified by faith, we have"—yes, I have "peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ."

"Hmm—er, well, that's what I overlooked."

Work is such a fascinating thing that most people can sit and look at it for hours.

Still a Minority
"Say, Bill. You didn't marry that girl back home while you were on vacation, did you?"
"Almost, Joe. Two of us were willing—me and the minister."

Ah, Why?
The minister was trying to teach the significance of "white" to a Bible school class. "Why," he said, "does a bride invariably desire to be clothed in white for her marriage?"
As no one answered, he explained: "White stands for joy, and the wedding day is the most joyful occasion of a woman's life."
A small boy queried: "Why do the men wear black?"

Epitomized
The war department, in "Behind Your Army," reports the plight of a sweetheart whose soldier was somewhere in the Pacific area. She tore open his letter to find inside this typed slip: "Your boy friend still loves you. But he talks too much." It was signed, "Censor."

Some Comfort
Winston Churchill, the story goes, was walking through the ruins of some blitzed streets when an old woman greeted him. The prime minister asked her how she felt after the night of bombing.
"Well, there's one thing about these air raids," she replied cheerfully, "they do take your mind off the war."

AROUND THE HOUSE

It is a mistaken idea that cucumbers must be soaked in cold water for some time before serving to remove the poison in them. They are not poisonous. Slice them and cover with ice until ready to serve, then remove ice.

The next time you make corn fritters to serve with chicken add some chopped, cooked bacon or ham to the batter.

For successful baking don't overcrowd your oven. Fill it to capacity, of course, but leave at least a one-inch space between every pan and the edge of the oven. Inspect baking foods frequently and turn them about for even cooking.

Dust is easily removed from reed furniture when a hose is used. Set furniture on the lawn when the sun is shining and play the hose on it.

Once a week garbage pails should be scalded with hot soda water and allowed to dry thoroughly in the sun.

To remove old wallpaper stir a quart of flour paste into a pail of hot water and apply the mixture to the walls. Being thick it will not dry quickly but will saturate the paper which may be easily scraped or peeled off.

To keep apples, bananas, fresh peaches or other salad fruits from darkening, cover the cut fruit with french dressing and store in the refrigerator. At serving time, mix them quickly with the other ingredients.

A cottage cheese ring makes a delicious and cool-looking mold for fruit or vegetable salad. Stiffen well-seasoned cottage cheese with a little gelatin or press the cheese into a buttered mold and let stand in a cold place.

LOIS WHITELY

McClure Syndicate—WNU Features.

PEGGY DANFORD didn't find out that she loved Roger Linsley until she had refused him and he had departed for a canoe trip in the Canadian wilderness, leaving no address behind him. Which seems rather stupid of her.

As a matter of fact, Peggy's "No" had been tentative rather than final and no one was more surprised than she when it was accepted as final.

So here she was now, this beautiful morning in late September, dashing down the stairs at the postman's ring in the hope that at last some word from Roger might be waiting for her.

But there was none.

"Looks like your ticket applications, Bill."

"Righto. Well—we'll take in the big game, anyhow."

Now disappointment in love affects the female sex in various ways. Some fly to desperate flirtations with other men; others withdraw into moody seclusion shunning contact with the world until recovered.

Peggy did neither, but, as she moved about on her usual round of pleasure, she found a strange reaction taking place within her. Love for Roger began to turn into positive hate. Peggy came to crave a meeting that she might show him how little she thought of him.

November arrived with its colorful pageant of autumn foliage. And with it came memorable Saturday afternoons when stalwart eleven-waged their hectic battles before the cheering multitudes.

Peggy and Bill were in their seats for the big game. Soon the seats all around them were filled. But one on Peggy's right remained empty until the game had started.

She subconsciously knew someone had taken the empty place, felt the presence of another, but so wrapped up was she in the exciting game that she paid no attention to her neighbor.

During intermission when the cheering was thunderous, Peggy, her eyes blazing with the excitement of the game and the November breeze, turned quickly—and looked straight into the familiar once-loved gray eyes of Roger Linsley.

There was a moment of utter silence between them, none the less intense for the thunderous cheer around them.

Then: "Imagine an explorer at a football game!" Peggy's heart was doing strange things and she was going to make it behave if she had to be downright nasty to Roger.

"You remember Bill?" she asked, as Roger remained silent. But when she turned her brother had disappeared.

"Oh, yes—Bill!" Roger stared at the empty space. "Must have shrunk—I really—don't see him."

Peggy flushed. That was the trouble with Roger. He thought he had a sense of humor.

"He was here a moment ago," she turned to scan the crowd.

"I really must see Bill. He was so interested in my trip. You know when I wrote him about the fishing he said he wanted to make just such a trip some day."

Peggy stared at him. "You—wrote—Bill?"

But Roger was suddenly talking steadily, tenderly.

"See, here, Peggy darling. That trip was planned just to give me a chance to think things out. You see, I had been trying for two years to the best of my ability to earn your love. I failed. I had a faint hope that absence might prove more my advocate than my presence evidently had. I had had it out with Bill. It seems there was a chap—some one named Burton or Barton—who seemed to be the favored one. Bill was quite sympathetic, but he didn't think I had a chance. He thought my trip a splendid idea—for my own good—if nothing more. I'm leaving tonight. I still love you too much to enjoy seeing you with someone else. Strange," he added with the whimsical smile that did strange things to Peggy, "that we should be seated together!"

Peggy caught her breath. This was fate. She forgot all the nasty things she had planned to say. All the cutting remarks that had been piling up for weeks.

"You can't—you wouldn't have gone without seeing me?" There were tears in Peggy's eyes.

"Bill told me you were so happy and gay, that you couldn't have missed me," Roger said.

"Girls don't wear their hearts on their sleeves any more," Peggy stormed. Stupid Bill!

"Do you mean—that you care?" Roger was holding her hand tight.

Hanging over the fence, Bill grumbled. "And I gave up a day getting that seat for Roger—at least a week making certain he would return in time for the game—spent $10 in bribes to see that he got here, lie to 'em both—and then don't dare return to my seat because they'll both think me responsible for their past unhappiness."

But he might just as well have returned. For neither Peggy nor Roger would have known he was there—as they were unaware that the teams had come in quite some time ago.

These Items Are Highlights of The College Girl's Wardrobe

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

NOW that a college girl's "yes" as to the fashion status of this and that has come to be regarded as an ultimatum it is interesting and illuminating to check up on her style preferences.

The first thought that comes to mind is the enthusiasm with which fair collegiates have gone "all out" in favor of cottons for year-round wear. The major recognition they are giving to smart cottons in assembling their back-to-school wardrobes this fall is really most significant.

Take for example the darling teddy-bear coat shown to the left in the above illustration. This adorable model is made of a white fleece woven on a cotton backing and lined with gay multi-striped broadcloth which accents the cuffs and front closing, edges the pockets and forms the collar. College girls figure this to be a wise buy in that they'll be as warm as the teddy the fleece resembles when they wear a coat of this type, and being "comfy" as well as charming helps a lot when it comes to lustily cheering from one's vantage spot in the stadium. Take it from the college vote that here is a coat that says V-for-Victory in no uncertain terms.

Another decision among campus enthusiasts is that they will be needing plenty of snappy sweaters to keep them in comfort and in fashion at the same time. Maybe a college girl's clothes allowance isn't just what it used to be, what with her being the girl behind the boy behind the bombers, by buying up those war bonds. The thing to do so as to keep pace with fashion's demands is to bring your last year's cardigan up to date by trimming it with oodles of chic buttons as the smart ones on the sweater to the right in the group illustrated in the Velveteen is being combined with other fabrics this season in effective ways. When brown velveteen is paired with brown and beige hound's-tooth check woolen the answer is ultra smartness. That is exactly the case in regard to this charming jacket costume. A suggestion of the military appears in the double-breasted gold button fastening of the brown velvet jacket. The skirt is of the brown and beige check. The jacket edges and simulated pockets are overcast in beige yarn. The newest fashions feature considerable yarn stitching used as trimming. A little costume like this is ideal for early fall, with its warm colors and soft fabric.

Thrifty college girls who are doing everything to save for bonds have discovered, too, that it's patriotic to make sewing their hobby. Nowadays sewing is an easy road that leads to fashion success and, besides, it is considered smart these days to "make your own." With the aid of one of the new thermo-plastic dress forms you can cut dress construction time in half by eliminating repeated try-ons. It's worth while knowing that your local sewing center can mold your form in half an hour. And then, with the fashion short cuts they will teach you, you'll be all set to do a grand job at home sewing.

If you feel the urge to sew you might try your hand at a jerkin costume like that shown centered in the group pictured above. This is a style easily made, especially if you provide yourself at the start with a good pattern that makes simplicity its theme. College girls adore jerkin costumes, for with a different blouse they may be made appropriate to any occasion in a jiffy. Then, too, jermans are so chic and so flattering and so youthful looking.

Brick red is the color of the fine wale corduroy that fashions this jerkin dress. The billowy blouse is a golden yellow, which goes to show how wholeheartedly campus dwellers have gone in for high color. A smart idea is to write your name in your own handwriting across the front of your jerkin blouse, just below the square neckline then fill it in with a signature stitch quickly on your sewing machine.

Dear to every collegiate heart is pretty lounging apparel like that pictured above in the inset. The "lat-est" as shown at the national wash apparel show recently held in Chicago is cuffless satin rayon pajamas done in blue for the pajamas and peach rayon satin for the quilted jacket. Please underscore the word "quilted," for there's a perfect craze for things quilted, from negligees to smart daytime jackets with hats and bags to match.

Memo to a Modern:
Buy Pretty Things

Here are a few fashion items that the modern girl might jot down in her notebook as "must haves." Sweaters with brushed surfaces, for shaggy effects are the thing this season. Add corduroy separates to juggle as you please, also a swank corduroy coat and a corduroy suit in beige or green or bright red. A jumper dress of denim, gabardine or corduroy should be included, and any and everything quilted from a house robe to a hat and muff two-some.

The new "jive coat" which is a 30-inch topper is wanted in wool. A rabbit's hair or wool jersey dress with embroidery touches. Velveteen dirndl skirt. Gingham pajamas, neatly tailored and a gingham nightgown to match. Flannellette nightgown for cold winter wear. Velvet date dress in a luscious color. Cotton gabardine raincoat. Necklace gaily painted acorns.

And she will add dozens of little hair bows, flowers and fantasies. Spotted furrow tuxedo cloth coat (hat to match). Something in the new purple or violet tones. Lace blouse to wear with afternoon velvet suit.

Cowl Neckline

Much attention is being given to creating flattering necklines. A "newsy" message from style centers is the revival of cowl neck treatments. Very new and smart is the black frock that has a cowl drape about the neckline done in a contrast-color fabric. Often deep cavalier cuffs match the cowl. If collar and cuffs are detachable, one can make the black frock do double service. A cyclamen pink cowl on black is very effective.

Necessary Evil

Evil is necessary. If it did not exist, the good would not exist. Evil is the unique reason for the good's being.

What would courage be far from peril? And what pity without pain? What would become of devotion and sacrifice if happiness were universal? It is because of evil and suffering that the earth may be inhabited and that life is worth living.—Anatole France.

Camp News

One of the major events of the whole camp was the two day visit of "Squatty" Hall, of the Vicksburg District last week. He always manages to take in a little of the social life of Grenada before turning in at the Glen Mid Country Club, operated by Dale S.

Another event of major importance for the camp was the arrival of Mary Leslie, the Saturday-arrived daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Anderson of CTM and Winona. The whole drafting room has been smoking cigars this entire week. You know that makes Mr. Hendrix, of the U. S. Engineers, and CTM mineographer, Mrs. Hendrix, proud grandparents. Mary Leslie weighed in at eight and one-quarter pounds at eight-fifteen Saturday morning.

Still speaking of the Hendrix, Billy, now an uncle thanks to Mary Leslie, was visiting here at Camp last Saturday when the great event occurred. Upon receiving the news, he leaped to his feet, and shouted "It can't be a girl... they are going to name it after me." Billy is now attending Hinds Junior College, in Raymond, Miss.

Mrs. Virginia McCord, of the U. S. Engineers, has been ill this week, but is back on the job.

Mr. Gilbert Rattle visited his mother and brothers at Fort Smith, Ark. last week-end and was accompanied as far as Greenville by Miss Wavell Baggett, secretary to Adm. Co-ordinator, Mr. M. L. Warren. Miss Baggett insisted that she was visiting girl friends there, but that said girl friend called Miss B. up three times in one day to be sure that she was coming.

Also on the same bus was Mickey J. Lee, who spent the week-end in Oak Grove visiting relatives, very close ones at that.

One of the sadder events of the week will be the departure Saturday of Mrs. Ida Garrett, who is joining her husband in Florida. He is employed by J. J. Jones, in Panama City, Fla. Miss Collins, from Greenwood, is taking Ida's place.

Rea Edgar from CTM in Kingsport, Tenn. spent a couple of days on the job here and nights in Grenada with the three bachelors - Dawson, W. Lessard, and F. Just.

Speaking of the bachelors, they attended a mutton party Tuesday night given by Morrissey and Knox - Contractors to the Training Aids. The M and K families are living in the F. S. A. houses and their own trailers right out in the fields.

Speaking of foods - Mr. Leo, Catroll, of CTM Drafting Department is now eating beefsteak instead of scrum.

bled eggs, as Mary Catherine is learning to cook.

Still on the subject of food, Lt. Jimmy Lumsden, Pale Savage, of Jones Construction M Villance and Jake R. attended a Miss. State Alumnae Barbecue Wednesday night at the S. L. Smith plantation of Mr. Frank Smith. Jimmy thinks his old team might make a better showing against Minnesota than against Batesville.

News from Finney's Alley: T. W. Sampson, J. D. Drake, John V. Sadler, H. W. Stewart and C. S. Webb spent the week-end at Jackson visiting their respective families and Mr. Sadler states that a good time was had by all.

Carrie Young, of the U. S. E. spent last week-end in Sardis with her mother and sisters.

Miss Marie Truist again breaks into print, for she visited the Chestlins in Kilmichael.

Mrs. Lella Buckingham, of CTM, spent the week-end at Booneville.

Miss visiting her parents, and accompanied by her husband "Buck" who also employed on the job at Camp. They spent Monday in Memphis.

Last Saturday was the scene of a little party at Jennison's "Shack in the Park". The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wells, and Mrs. Rider, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Frye, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard, Mr. W. A. Jamison, is, as you know, one of the Partial Payment Estimators for CTM, and lives in the little bungalow in the rear of the Barrin Hotel.

Capt. and Mrs. Tierce spent last week-end in Jackson and visited the pleasure boat "The President".

This is more on the business side, but Mr. C. P. Mullins is now, Chief Concrete Inspector at the Air Base, and Mr. S. L. Huddleston is taking his place as Chief Concrete Inspector at Camp McCain.

One news item that we regret to report is the transfer of Major Bush to Miami Fla. The Major was here only a short while but both he and his wife were very popular.

Mr. John Fowler, of the Supply Department of the U. S. E. spent last week-end at his home at Natchez, the historical city.

TEA FOR VISITOR

On Friday afternoon last, between the hours of 3 and 5, Mrs. L. J. Phillips graciously entertained in honor of her mother, Mrs. Cabell Fox, of Boston, who has visited here the past week.

dainty sandwiches and cookies were served was most charmingly decorated with sprays of Coral vine blossoms. This delightful tea was attended by about thirty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Townsend Salter received word last week that their son, "Bill," has volunteered for service in the Aviation Corps, and was inducted into service Sept. 24 at Chicago.

For some time I have been writing that the idea of a 12-13 million man army was fantastic. This (Thursday) morning I noted in The Washington Morning Globe this significant statement: "Some of the President's close advisers are getting more and more concerned over drafting a huge army and the simultaneous problem of supporting that army."

I was glad to see that substantial support to the contention that I have repeatedly made in recent weeks—that a (good) army is a hell of a lot better than a BIG army.

Congratulations to Lt. Col. John C. Wade, who was promoted and sworn in on Wednesday. He is an officer and a gentleman. What more can be said.

Major, pardon Colonel Wade is the most conscientious army officer I ever knew, and I have known a lot of them.

The poor squirrels have been caught in the trap and No. 5 shot here lately.

Our good friends, Pink Horton and Aunt Cook of Bent Three recently honored our office with a call.

I frankly believe, from the progress we are making with the rotogravure supplement, that this supplement will run to about 32 pages.

The G.W. is indebted greatly to the anonymous correspondent at Camp McCain for many timely and well written items. This column is avidly read.

I do not believe a better man could have been selected to head the Scrap Drive in the county than McCune Talbot. He certainly has his whole heart and his entire energy in this vital campaign.

Gene Pyron out at the cattle sale paid in two bucks and this is his receipt.

Mrs. Rose went to preaching Sunday night.

Those who have photographs in our office, please call for them.

Sign said to have been seen in an Australian bar room. "Lieutenant Colonel, less than 21 years of age, will not be served unless accompanied by both their parents."

Aint they sweet.

Captain Robert M. Price, Chaplain at the camp, played the GCW a visit Thursday. He, like thousands of other officers, is looking for a place for himself and family to stay.

Mabel dreamed Wednesday night that Pittsburgh had been bombed off the map. She must have eaten sausage for supper.

Some of Bill Saunders' white face meetings recently sold for 13 1/2 cents—the top price.

Calvin J. M. McCormack, who recently got his subscription and that of his wife in good shape, dropped in to Grenada a short while, when enroute to his new post of duty at Camp Shelby.

Becher Ernie Thorpe, the Blitzbox, called recently.

Look out for more and more sharpers. A negro woman, purporting to be collecting for the USO, was apprehended of this week.

It looks like the very devil himself got our type mixed up when we try to refer to Corporal Kermit Yopi, now ill in the camp hospital. We have called him Noble, Gopp, Popp, and everything else but his real name. Apologies, Corporal.

Everybody has forgotten about the beer election.

Speaking about elections, somebody in Jackson wanted me to organize the county in an effort to get the proposed constitutional amendments (about which I know nothing, and care less) passed. I do not believe in changing the constitution. If a person does not know what interests are behind the proposed changes, it is always best to vote against ANY change.

Brother Cecil Jones paid his subscription way back last Spring, got the paper a while, then failed to get it. His name is being replaced on our list. Mistakes occur. Sorry.

So many folks are being killed on the road that I cannot keep up with them.

Dame Rumor hath it that many will be here long.

Yes, the old lady got her house moved.

Army To Help Get Scrap Says Col. Ryder

Col. I. E. Ryder, Commanding Officer of Camp McCain, transferred the following to us: Major General William Bryden, commanding general, Services of Supply Service Command, today emphasized that the Army stands ready to assist civilian agencies in getting collected metal and other salvage from the junk piles to the common "melting pot."

"It has come to our attention that at some points in the southeastern states, civilian agencies have collected piles of scrap that are remaining idle because there is not a complete understanding of how to get it to the war industries plants."

"Two ready roads to the 'melting pot' are open to all. First, the scrap can be sold to a regular junk dealer, who will ship it to the plants, and the money he pays for it may be used by the individual civilian, club or other agency in any manner they choose."

"Second, the salvage officer at any Army post, camp or station is authorized to accept the scrap as a donation to the war effort and he will see that it is shipped to the industries that are making war machines at the earliest possible moment. All civilians have to do is get in touch with the commanding officer at any Army post, who will arrange with the salvage officer to take over the scrap upon delivery to the post."

"The need for all scrap, especially metal, is vital and the piles of junk, no matter how large or small, are doing no good whatever in a vacant lot. So, just get that salvage to an Army post and we'll do the rest."

Scrap Metal Pouring In From Everywhere

Under the leadership of Mr. J. M. Talbot, who has accepted the responsibility for directing the accumulation of scrap metal and scrap rubber in Grenada County, the people of this county are becoming more and more enthusiastic. Mr. Talbot's slogan is "Sell it, or give it, but get it in." He states that his plan is most constantly being used in receiving calls to "come and get it," or information furnishing clues to where an old boiler, some abandoned rats or old wash pots are located.

Among those who have made large deliveries of scrap since the drive started last week are the following:

Grenada Industries, 62,000 pounds of scrap metal and 235 pounds of rubber.
Smith & Pex sold a solid car of about 10,000 pounds of broken in a pile Western Auto Company, 2,000 pounds of scrap iron and 225 pounds of rubber.

Knox Pierce donated 1150 pounds to Grenada High School.

Grenada Oil Mill donated 2300 pounds to Army and Navy Relief.

Belgrade Lumber Company donated 5000 pounds to Army and Navy Relief.

Grenada Industries donated 1100 pounds to Army and Navy Relief.

Grenada Theatre donated 580 pounds.

Grenada Farms donated 6000 pounds to the Woman's Club.

Keep the scrap rolling in!!

Wade Rice Now A Corporal

Announcement has been made that 1st Class Private Wade H. Rice, formerly of Holcomb, has been promoted to the rank of Corporal.

III, corp.

Let's Swap Motors

Wanted to swap a one h. p. Westinghouse motor THREE phase in perfect condition, for a one h. p. motor SINGLE phase, 110-220 volts. No junk wanted.

Mrs. Rundle Seeks Contributions

Mrs. John Rundle, Grenada, is chairman of Grenada county for the Blue Mountain College employment campaign which is to raise $100,000.00 to endow the chair of "Mother" Berry.

Mrs. Rundle now is engaged in enlisting twenty workers in the county to assist with the solicitation. They are to be secured by October 12.

Mr. C. S. Thomas, Carrollton, chairman of District 2, of which Grenada county is a part, has called a meeting of county chairmen and county workers for October 22, at the First Baptist Church, Grenada, at 3:30 p. m.

Miss Gene Marders Receives Honors

Grenada friends are happy over the announcement that Miss Gene Marders, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Marders, was nominated for recognition in 1942-43 edition of Who's Who among students in American colleges. This announcement came Wednesday of this week from the dean at Belhaven College, Jackson, where Miss Marders is a senior.

A senior, is president of Student Body. Requisites for membership in this national organization includes character, scholarship, leadership in extra curricular work and universal popularity for future usefulness to business and society.

By special request the advisors of the committee of the faculty made the selection. Congratulations, Gene.

Commissioned

The friends of the family, including the G.W., are delighted to see that John W. Young, Jr., son of Rev. J. W. Young of Jackson, and nephew of the Young sisters of Grenada, has been commissioned as Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery.

HON. MARSHALL PERRY

Mr. Wiley B. Denton Buried In Bardwell, Kentucky

Mr. Wiley B. Denton, of Grenada, died in this city September 26, 1942.

He was born in White County, Tennessee, on August 15, 1887, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Denton. He was married on March 30, 1881, and was a member of the Christian Church over since he was 24 years of age. During his active life he was a farmer.

On September 28, 1942 he was buried in Bardwell, Kentucky, Rev. Glen L. Wiley of Grenada, conducted the services here, while Rev. J. W. Denton, of Bardwell, Kentucky, conducted the services at Bardwell.

Surviving him are the following children: L. A. Denton, of Grenada; Mrs. L. P. McKeetham, Mayfield, Ky.; Mrs. Banks, of Mayfield; R. W. Denton, of Milan, Tenn.; Mrs. T. D. Denton, of Martin, Tenn.; and Mrs. Harry Cheatham, of Fulton, Ky. Two brothers, John and Ned Denton, of Bardwell, also survive.

To the sorrowful ones, we extend our sympathy.

EDITOR'S NOTE: due to our inability to get definite information last week, this notice had to be delayed in publication.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB MEETS

On Wednesday, October 7, 1942 at the Community House, the Fortnightly Club held its first meeting of the 1942-1943 season in the form of a tea in special compliment to the members of the 20th Century Club and to the new members of the Fortnightly Club.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Mrs. J. D. Quinn, president of the Fortnightly Club. The tea table, presided over by Mrs. Walter V. Davis and Mrs. W. B. Hoffa, Jr., was overlaid with a lace cloth and held a centerpiece of roses and yellow baby's breath. The room was illuminated by yellow candles in silver holders.

The special hostesses for the occasion were: Mrs. Walter V. Davis, Mrs. J. D. Quinn, Mrs. J. D. Quinn, Mrs. J. E. Murray and Mrs. Bert Bays.

LEGION COMMANDER AND "ONE MAN" C. OF C. ENDORSES ROTOGRAVURE SUPPLEMENT

Mrs. E. L. Wilkins Chairman Women's Activity Group

Mrs. E. L. Wilkins is in receipt of a letter from the Chief of State Administration, Bureau of Planning, War as chairman of Women's Activity Group in Grenada County.

Part of the letter is reproduced for you that you may better understand the great effort Grenada County women will make to sell bonds and stamps.

"In view of the increasingly dependence upon the interest of the American War Savings program, a special Women's Section has been set up, the activities of which are to be integrated with the other branches of the War Savings Work, under L. J. Dons, chairman of Grenada County War Savings Committee."

"In the reorganization you have been recommended as chairman of the Women's Activities Group in Grenada County, therefore, on behalf of the Secretary of the Treasury, I am pleased to appoint you chairman of Women's Activities Group of your county."

"Mrs. Lorraine Crockett is attached to our staff as State chairman of Women's Work Activities and she will communicate with you relative to the women's program and its objectives."

Mrs. Wilkins has accomplished a great deal in way of raising of campaign contributions and of enlisting the aid of leaders in other communities of the county. Her staff has been named and the following women will serve as Women's Activities Group chairmen:

Mrs. E. L. Wilkins, Grenada County chairman; Mrs. George Garner, vice chairman; Mrs. J. B. Perry, Jr., secretary; Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, information chairman; Mrs. L. E. Noble, chairman for Women's Clubs; Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, publicity chairman; Mrs. W. K. Kuhn, chairman of special features with Mrs. C. C. Cathey as co-chairman.

Mrs. P. D. Holcomb, chairman at Holcomb; Mrs. Sam Colton, chairman at Gore Springs; Mrs. Signe Willis, chairman at Grayport.

The Women's Activities Group has other announcements to make in the near future. However, in the women's drive to sell bonds and stamps, it is announced now that the Women's Activities Group will begin an intensive drive on October 15, lasting through November 30.

Every club and every woman's organization of the several communities will be instructed in ways and means of increasing the sales of bonds and stamps.

Next week we will publish the names of club committee women who will sell bonds and stamps, also the name of the business house or store where these ladies will have their booth.

Mrs. Wilkins states that she will give a $2,000 bond to the organization selling the most bonds and stamps during the drive, November 1 to 15.

Whyte, Whitaker, Editor Grenada County Weekly Grenada, Miss.
Dear Whyte:

I have just learned of your plan to publish a rotogravure magazine, which will present the Triangular Division Camp, the City of Grenada and this section in a pictorial form.

The Grenada County Weekly is a community institution which strives to build up the community, gives publicity to those things calculated to prove helpful to the future of the entire section.

Your job is a most essential one during the emergency in disseminating war information and other facts that need to be kept our folks informed.

As Commander of the local post of the American Legion I wish to commend you and assure you that you will have my full cooperation in part, the Propaganda of the Constitution of the American Legion is: "To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation." With this in mind we not only feel that it is our duty but a privilege to do our part in cooperating with you in such a laudable undertaking.

Bill Sappier, Commander.

We quote Colonel W. B. Hoffa, prominent real estate man as follows:

I have noticed in the Grenada County Weekly for the past few weeks the activities of your drive to be commended effort to give to our community for historical preservation a complete picture of Grenada and its surrounding area including the wonderful Army Camp and Air Port which life men so generously bestowed upon us by our great Government, which in its wisdom has selected the Grenada area for the wonderful war plant which with hundreds of others is going to enable us to carry the Torch of Liberty to the furthestmost corners of the earth while will liberate all peoples from thralldom of the sinister influences which are seeking to destroy the world.

Through the channels of your newspaper, working for the betterment of our community, I know that our people will respond to your effort and meeting the individual thousands of people that will come into our community in this great war effort and make them feel that we are with them in soul and spirit. In the effort that we all should strive to do, I wish you and your associates the great success in this worthy undertaking which you so richly deserve.

Jr. Red Cross Enrollment Campaign Nov. 1 to 15

On September 15, 1942, the American Junior Red Cross celebrated its Silver Anniversary. Twenty-five years ago on that day, the President of the United States proclaimed the establishment of a division of junior membership within the American Red Cross, commended the newly created organization to the school teachers and officials of the nation, and invited the boys and girls of the schools to join.

They responded ~~800,000~~ strong. When the Armistice was signed, their numbers had increased to ~~12,000,000~~. They had made and given one-tenth of all the production work, valued at more than $100,000,000, which had been received by The American National Red Cross. Moreover, they had contributed in cash more than $1,000,000.

Today our nation is at war again. In a global war, a war of survival. Our Junior Red Cross now numbering in excess of 14,000,000 is marching shoulder to shoulder with our adult membership. They contributed significantly to the War Fund. They are producing great quantities of articles for the care, comfort and entertainment of the armed forces. They are waging a war against waste. They are assisting in the forming and equipping of community defense operations and in addition to many other activities, are receiving training in first aid, water safety, accident prevention, home nursing, and nutrition. Above all this they are learning by doing and are becoming trained in social competency and in acquiring the attitudes and skills necessary to Red Cross and general civic leadership.

Last year the Junior Red Cross enrollment campaign for the first time on a national basis was held simultaneously with the Roll Call. Since the 1943 Roll Call will not be held until March 1943, and because the Junior Red Cross must necessarily gear its program into school organization, the Junior Red Cross enrollment campaign will be conducted separately throughout the nation November 1 to 15. Members secured in this campaign will be for the calendar year 1943.

All Chapters and all Red Cross officials and workers are earnestly urged.

Mississippi Will Need A Real Helmsman

Winning the war is the immediate task, of course, and all things and all efforts should be made secondary to this main objective. Yet peace, and its problems, follows war just as inevitably as daylight follows darkness.

With good crops of cotton selling at high prices, with war expenditures filling the pockets of Mississippi citizens in many areas, including the Grenada area, and with a measure of prosperity flowing into the non-defense areas from the defense areas, Mississippi today finds itself in the best financial condition that it has been in during the past two decades. Yet peace, with its problems and headaches and heartaches, will come after the war. Mississippians are going to have to get back on the ground.

We Mississippians should begin to think of the man to be placed at the helm of the State in January, 1944. Perhaps by that time the honeymoon of war will be over, and the drudgery of peace and reconstruction will have begun. Certainly, during the term of office of the next governor the headaches will start.

I do not know who is going to offer for the governorship, but I do know, in advance, that some of the candidates, as usual, are going to promise the impossible, that is, big pensions for the aged. Many a candidate has ridden into office on the faithful old man, "Old Age Pensions." One rode that nag into office in Mississippi in 1889. Mississippi, the poorest state in the Union, cannot afford to pay $3000 per month to its aged people, and the members of that unfortunate group might as well relegate that dream to the limbo of forgotten things.

I do know that Mississippi is going to need a GOOD governor worse than that good executive needs the office. I do know that Mississippi is going to need an able man in the governor's chair worse than it has ever needed one; for the problems to be solved, if possible of solution, are going to be the greatest in our history. I do know that I personally am not going to vote for ANYONE who promises that he can create prosperity by the enactment of laws. I know that prosperity does not come that way. I know that I am going to do this, when the "horses" are lined up: I am going to forget, for one time, friendship and prejudice, and honestly try to pick the BEST man, irrespective of any other consideration. In advance, I scratch off any candidate who makes extravagant promises. I would much prefer a candidate who said, "Well, boys, we are in a hell of a fix. Let's get together and try to WORK out of it," to one who to group after group says, "I am going to GIVE you something for nothing."

It is none too early for people to begin thinking of such vital matters. "In peace, prepare for war." "In good times, prepare for bad times."

Expediting Inflation

The government has undertaken a giant task of controlling prices and rents in an effort to avert or postpone inflation.

It seems to me that the cost of this control is going to be enormous, considering the fact that the Grenada Rental Control office will have two $3800.00 a year men and one $2200.00 a year man and from 8 to 16 employees whose minimum salaries will certainly be not less than $1200.00 a year. Rental control is just ONE of MANY phases of price control. It will take more snooters, secretaries, typists, etc. to watch every little groceryman to see that he does not sell a package of Arm & Hammer soda for six cents than it would take to free the continent of Europe from the Huns.

Inflation is caused primarily by a condition where the government pays out more than it takes in. How in the name of the devil is the government shortening the gap between income and outgo by adding an army of snooters to the payroll. The government, by Executive Order of the President, has ordered that wages and salaries be fixed. This was done, I suppose, to prevent private employers from paying wages or salaries greater than the earners were worth. Why in the name of the devil, then, does the government pay such enormous salaries for the snooters, executives, etc. who are to control prices and rents. If some are to receive these big salaries, I personally just as soon see Morrow and Marshall Perry and the gentleman from New Albany get them; but why pay such salaries? Why unnecessarily add to the expense of the government. I am sure that Mrs. Goodwin, who bears the sins and misfortunes of one-third of the people of Grenada County in her Welfare Department does not get over $100 per month and works like a slave to get THAT. Why should Morrow, Perry and the gentleman from New Albany get at least twice the amount that the government could get just as good service for?

Understand, I am and have been a great advocate of controlling prices and reducing rents to a reasonable level; but if it is going to bankrupt the United States to accomplish these things, Uncle Sam might as well call a First Meeting of Creditors right now.

Here is a fundamental question, applicable to the situation under review and to ALL situations where the government is the paymaster: why should the government ALWAYS pay an employee just about twice the amount that he could earn in private business? Out at the camp, nail drivers are getting about a dollar an hour; paint snooters more than that, ditch diggers about twice the wages that they would earn from private employers?

Unless Uncle Sam quits trying to be Santa Claus to ONE-HALF of the population of the Nation, and in the meantime getting further and further involved in debt, he might as well "go bust" and admit it.

Let's all work for the government at fancy wages and salaries, and permit Ellzab's ravens to feed us.

End Of The Honeymoon

The honeymoon that the American people have been enjoying in spite of their participation in a global war is over. The wedding cake has been eaten. The flowers have mouldered into dust. The ribbons are soiled. Yes, the honeymoon is definitely over.

On Saturday the President issued an Executive Order which, for practical purposes, really fixes prices and wages. He extended rent control to ALL areas. He placed a top on salaries.

Right here in Grenada, where Dame Gossip says little attention has been paid to "ceiling prices," a group of investigators has been set up here. And, by the way, if that authority has any authority, rents WILL be reduced to the March, 1942 level, and will be reduced on EVERYBODY. If the low means anything, it means just that. If it is NOT enforced on EVERYBODY, the law might as well be dumped into the nearest manhole.

Just around the corner, gasoline rationing will be extended to include the remainder of the United States, including the State of Mississippi. Drivers who have but four gallons of gasoline to use each week will do their necking closer to home. They will curtail their trips to Memphis and buy at home. Right there is a golden opportunity for Grenada merchants to RECAPTURE their trade that has been lost to Memphis and other towns.

The maximum speed limit of motor cars and trucks will be 35 miles per hour, and this limit will be enforced. No more sailing by at 60 miles per hour. Fewer wrecks. Less loss of life and limb.

There will be an immediate discontinuance of the manufacture of liquor. The liquor-heads, however, find consolation in the knowledge that there is in the various warehouses a supply sufficient to last four or five years. Another consolation may be found in the knowledge that cornmeal and sorghum molasses, when properly mixed and soured, can produce a good grade of skokat.

There is a scarcity of meat for civilian consumption. There will be a meat rationing within a short time. The addicts to the brew of the coffee urns will soon find that their favorite beverage is rationed. Civilian goods of all kinds will probably be rationed as time goes on. The restriction on the buying of new tires are so severe already that it almost requires an edict from the Supreme Court to get a new tire. This condition will get worse. Recapping regulations will be tightened up.

Just around the corner is January. The new income taxes will become due. Millions of new names will be added to the federal income tax payers. Those who have paid income tax in former years will be astounded to find the great increase they face. It takes money, and plenty of it, to fight a war. Incidentally, I believe we should have a federal sales tax and PAY AS WE GO, so far as possible, to relieve the unborn generations of the expenses of a war they had nothing to do with.

As the demand for men increases, it will not be far in the future when fathers are taken from their wives and children and placed in the army. Maybe in time they will get around to some few unmarried men, apparently overlooked, and to men in the reserve. No IMPARTIAL government will take a man from his wife and children before it takes single men.

Yes, the honeymoon is over.

It Does Not Make Sense

We have a three-man draft board in Grenada. It is their duty to select the men to go to war. At first, when they were skinning the cream from the churn, they had an easy task, for they sent men who almost everyone agreed SHOULD go to war. As the cream was skimmed off, it became the duty of these gentlemen to dip deeper into the churn, taking men from their wives, men from their old dependent parents and men who were engaged in important work. It will soon be necessary for this body to separate fathers from their children, breaking up homes that will never be whole again. Many of the men they send will never return to Grenada County at all; many will come back in flag-draped caskets; many will return crippled in mind or body. THESE MEN, who deal with human life, with marital unions, with fathers and children, these men, we say, work WITHOUT PAY. As time goes on, they will become about as popular as a bunch of polecats, although they perform their duties conscientiously. All the pay they receive is a lot of cussing and ill will.

In Grenada we have another body composed of three men who deal, not with human life, human liberty or with marital relations, but with an inanimate thing called "rent." These men receive an average of about $2500.00 a year.

It does not make any sense.

Let's Have A Quality Army

The Director of Selective Service seems more wedded to the idea of a BIG army than to the idea of a GOOD army. He seems to want QUANTITY, to hell with QUALITY. His idea of an army of 12-13 million men is fantastic.

It seems to me that a GOOD army, that is an army that is well trained, well fed, well clothed and well equipped is far superior to a BIG army which cannot be well trained, well fed, well clothed and well equipped.

If the tragic chapters of the hideous drama of the present war have taught anything, they have taught us that a GOOD army is superior to a BIG army. These first chapters in that hideous drama should have taught us also that OFFENSE, not DEFENSE wins campaigns. To win this war, our side will have to put a SUPERIOR army in direct contact with the enemy.

Let greater stress be placed on QUALITY soldiers and less stress be placed on QUANTITY, is good advice.

No Houses Today

The old lady is in the rental business, but she has NOTHING to rent. She is like a sailing vessel during a calm, nowhere to go, nothing to do with.

You will save your own time and her time if you will remember that, whereas she is anxious to help if possible, she has NO rooms, houses or apartments for rent.

The poor thing can not eat a meal uninterrupted by a telephone call from some frantic person looking for a place to stay; she cannot take a nap without being awakened by the door bell or the telephone; she cannot write "copy" for the paper without being interrupted by desperate people looking for places to stay.

She has opened more reluctant doors for the reception of the strangers within our gates than any other person in Grenada, and has done this most often without a commission. She is now at her row's end. She can no longer help.

No houses, no rooms, no apartments today, or tomorrow for that matter!!

We Have Lost Everything Except Our Complacency

Lieut. Gen. Brehon Somervell bluntly told the nation Tuesday that "We have lost all our rubber, most of our tin, our hemp, our silk, ships by the hundreds, and men by the thousands."

"We have lost freedom of the seas."

"We have lost everything except a smug complacency, and that is the one thing we have got to lose, and lose fast, or we will lose our independence."

This man is charged with supplying our armies and he knows what he is talking about. He bluntly said that, whether we are willing to realize it or not, it is no longer a question of "when" we will win but "if" we will win.—Tupelo Journal.

The Jack Barn

The sheer iron monstrosity—which we have called the "jack barn," because Joe McFee's Jack always brays loud when he passes it, thinking he has got back home—is an eyesore and a disgrace to the City Beautiful, and should be removed. This "jack barn" is located right next to the Figgly Wigly Store on Main Street in the heart of Grenada.

In my opinion, the proper way to have it removed is for the City of Grenada to negotiate with the owners of the building and buy and remove it. The owners built it with, we understand, full authority from the City of Grenada, having secured the proper Building Permit. The owner or owners have property rights in the building, which MUST be respected. If the City made a mistake in permitting its erection, let the City pay for its mistakes like you and I have to do.

UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE

By Herbert B. Allen

In my recent articles criticizing the army high command, which specifically referred to Generals George Marshall and Henry Arnold, I ascribed the failure of American Initiative, daring, and audacity, to the age of our senior commanders.

My recommendation was that General Douglas MacArthur should be returned to the United States and given command of the army so that he might clean the cobwebs out of the War Department, and relieve Generals Marshall and Arnold from their commands.

Some idea of what would have happened to the highest ranking officers of our Regular Army, had General MacArthur been given command of our army, is indicated in reports from Australian Headquarters.

General MacArthur has just rid himself of the dead wood in his Air Force command, although this involves the removal of his second in command—a lieutenant general of the U. S. Army. Only soldiers and veterans can appreciate the significance of General MacArthur's action.

Lieutenant General Brett was one of the old timers in the old Air Corps, which is probably the sole reason for his wearing the three stars of a lieutenant general. He never did anything to earn the high rank, except to get the breaks through army politics.

General Brett "talked" a great war in Australia. MacArthur has now replaced him with another man who has been commanded to "fight" a great war, instead of "talk" one. Under Brett's do-nothing command, the Japanese are almost across the island of New Guinea—a difficult country to advance across.

All I know of the qualifications if the men named by MacArthur to command air operations in his zone is that they are much YOUNGER men.

General Brett, and his three senior officers, were aged: 56, 52, 53 and 58—an average age of 55. His successor, Major General George C. Kenny, and his three senior officers, are 33, 47, 44 and 35—an average age of 45. In one move, General MacArthur reduced the average of his Air Force commanders by 10 years. This is a belated step in the right direction.

Judging by the ages of the men who did the greatest work in commanding fighting pilots—the RAF commanders who fought the Battle of Britain in 1940—the average age of a hard-fighting, daring, inventive air command should be around 35 years.

The army politely announced that the four officers brought back to this country had been through the tough grind of real warfare and their experience would be of benefit in our training program. Well—they didn't bring Doolittle back and give him a training camp command!

The change was actually made for the reason that MacArthur wanted and demanded an Air Force command that would get into ACTION. That means YOUNGER senior officers!

This is a direct confirmation of the charge made in my articles, that the Air Force command was dead with age. And brother, 55 years of age in the Air Force is as old as Methusalem!

May I apologize for writing recently that my brother-in-law was believed to be with the marine commando outfit now in the Solomon Islands.

Since that time, nearly every person in Chicago has claimed that his brother, his uncle, his nephew, or his grandfather, is with the marines in the Solomon Islands.

If these claims are all true, the entire marine corps is in the Solomons—and I am sure that there could have been no room in any of the landing boats for my brother-in-law.

During the recent senatorial campaign that voter-an scribe, Major Fred Sullens, of the Jackson Daily News, wrote that Jim Eastland would rattle around in Pat Harrison's seat in the Senate, like a mustard seed in a bull fiddle. It came as something of a surprise to learn that the Major was familiar with anything so dry as a mustard seed!

Those who read the political advertisement that appeared during election week, signed by most of the cotton belt Senators, will find some difficulty in agreeing with Major Sullens. Many of those cotton belt Senators, superannuated old fossils who have never performed a substantial service to the South during their long "reign" in the Senate, are as jealous of any young Southerner of ability and initiative, as an elderly actress is jealous of an especially attractive young actress in her supporting cast. They dread the appearance of new blood in the Southern delegation.

When Jim Eastland made his maiden speech, I happened to be in the Senate press gallery, and I noted that the really important Senators—the men who carry the burden of the Senate's activities—listened to Jim with respectful attention and evident approval.

Eastland did rattle around in the Senate, and he rattled with excellent effect. He rattled in his own seat, in his own right, and in his own time. Mississippi is not living in Pat Harrison's time. It is living in Jim Eastland's time.

The old timers, from force of habit, must always look back on the past; they have little stomach for the present, and less for the future. But, if you must have a look at the past, Major, for God's sake, have an honest look! There has not been a first class United States Senator representing Mississippi in Washington since the days of the old stalwarts, Senators Walthall, Money and Williams.

Bright spots on the Southern political horizon are all too few, and too far between. September has been a banner month for the South in this respect. For two young Southerners, Governor Ellis G. Arnold, of Georgia, and Mississippi's own Jim Eastland, stand out from the mediocrity and lullaby crowd of Southern politicians, like beacons to a lost aviator.

Why not give the young men a break, Major? It's just a matter of the keys you hit on your typewriter. Just as it is with me. They have been "beaten" in a hell of a mess by the older generation—and they are stuck with the consequences.

REMEMBER AN REFLECTION HOW ALLIED
WHAT THEN PARTITIONS SENSE FROM THOUGHT DIVIDE!

—Alexander Pope

It looks as though Whyte Whitaker is going high hat. He has taken to describing the random ideas he hatches out under his bald head as: "Heterogeneous Thoughts." Shades of Georgia Tech! How can I hope to compete with Whyte (with only a northern brain) since he has commenced to use such high falutin' headings?

New enterprises that I am about to undertake will leave me very little time in the future for writing on these pages, but I sincerely trust that the articles I have contributed to Grenada's home paper may have been of some interests to the many friends and acquaintances I made during my brief sojourn in your midst.

If time permits, I shall continue brief comment on men and affairs, sprinkled generously with the thoughts of men whose writing is infinitely more interesting and instructive than mine—but this is the swan song for our gatherings, UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE.

Speaking of interesting and instructive thoughts, did you notice this sentence in Mrs. R. A. Clanton's well written letter in the issue of Sept. 17? Declared Mrs. Clanton: "Where there is privilege there is responsibility." One of my favorite philosophers is Thomas Jefferson; and I am sure that thought is worthy of the Sage of Monticello. Charlie Liles could preach a splendid sermon, using those seven words as a text; and I would certainly enjoy hearing him do so.

The articles I have written in this newspaper have covered a very wide field, and have portrayed the world as it appears through liberal eyes. Every writer has a creed to which he subscribes, and closing the discussions UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE, may I appropriately conclude with a creed to which I subscribe whole heartedly, in every single particular.

I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic, a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies.

Though I've belted you and flayed you,
By the livin' Gawd that made you,
You're a better man than I am, Gunga Din!

—Rudyard Kipling.

RUTH MORGAN BECOMES BRIDE

Miss Ruth Morgan, daughter of Mrs. M. B. Morgan, of Memphis, and the late Mr. Morgan, became the bride of Mr. George Farnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Farnell, of Plymouth, Miss., at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Methodist Church in Grenada, the Rev. W. L. Robinson, officiating in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

The bride chose the Methodist Church in Grenada as the scene of her own wedding because of her parents' marriage being solemnized in the Grenada church forty years ago. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Mr. Marcus Dillard and daughter of the late Mr. M. B. Morgan, civil engineer who supervised the construction of the railroad connecting Grenada and Greenwood.

Lovely floral garlands filled two large wicker baskets and these flanked the altar. Charming arrangements of chrysanthemum and flat fern were effectively used in the back ground.

Mrs. William Lomax, of Grenada, gave a program of nuptial music, playing Clair-de-Lune by Debussy, Chopin Nocturne E. flat Major, and Berceuse by Godard. The traditional wedding march and recessional were beautifully rendered and during the ceremony Mrs. Lomax played Chopin's 24th Prelude at the request of the groom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. W. V. Dillard, wore a handsome fur trimmed costume suit of brown wool with matching hat trimmed with fur and carried a lovely arm bouquet of tallman roses tied with gold ribbon bow.

Miss Annie Anderson, bride's maid, carried a lovely afternoon frock of dark green velvet, with green velvet hat. Her bouquet was of pink chrysanthemums tied with pink tulle.

The maid of honor, Mrs. E. C. Brindley, of Memphis and cousin of the bride, wore a lovely velvet frock of green and gold, with matching velvet hat, and carried California gold chrysanthemums tied with gold ribbon.

Messrs. David Dillard and Brannon Anderson were ushers and Mr. Lewis Dillard, Jr., attended the groom as best man. The single ring ceremony was used.

The bride's mother wore a lovely blue dress with corsage of pink roses and tiny chrysanthemums. The groom wore a tuxedo.

The young couple will take an eastern wedding trip to the New England States, stopping in Plymouth for a visit, then to Pittsburg and Washington, D. C. They will reside in New Orleans.

MRS. LILES HOSTESS

Mrs. C. S. Liles was hostess to Auxiliary members on Monday afternoon at a lovely tea. The home was charmingly arranged and decorated for this social, and tea was served in the living room. Assisting Mrs. Liles pour tea was Mrs. Harry Burkley. The table, draped with a lovely imported cloth, was most attractive with a floral centerpiece and lighted tapers. The lovely dresses and other articles of clothing for Saddle Key were displayed and truly the joy of those who came to "our" little girl at Natchez was most genuine.

Mrs. Harry Burkley, C. P. C. chairman, was custodian of the gifts. At the close of the social hour, Mrs. Whitaker said the Auxiliary prayer and Service League benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. Drunwright, of Grenada, have moved to Chicago. Mr. Drunwright, instructor in the Defense School in Grenada, has enlisted in the Navy and will receive his training at Chicago Naval Station.

FRENCH MARKET

Miss Gene Geeslin spent the past weekend in Water Valley as the guest of Miss Catherine Buchanan. She was guest of honor at a dinner party given at the Buchanan home, also attended a dance at the auditorium.

Mr. Spencer Bell, of Memphis, visited his mother, Mrs. Marcia Bell the past week-end.

Lt. L. Shaw Costlow, of Camp Gruber, Okla., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Costlow this week, having arrived Monday. Lt. Costlow states that the only Grenada boy with his outfit now is "Hoot" Roane, a member of the Regimental band.

Two young men of Grenada, William Gammon and Fred Joiner enlisted at Greenwood and reported to Camp Shelby on Friday, October 2.

CELEBRATES FIRST BIRTHDAY

Miss Martha Kirk Wofford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wofford and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kirk, celebrated her first birthday at Drew, Mississippi on September 22, 1942.

Congratulations to this splendid little miss.

REICHARDSON-BEATTY

Mrs. William Patton Wilkins, of Grenada, announces the marriage of her niece, Augusta Grinnell Beatty, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beatty, to Samuel M. Richardson, of Corinth, Miss., on October 3, 1942, at 8 P. M. at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. T. W. Young, pastor of the Baptist Church at Corinth, Miss.

Mrs. C. T. Cossitt and Miss Ann Perkins, close friends of the bride and groom were in attendance.

The bride attended school at M. S. C. W. at Columbus, Miss., where she did her undergraduate work and is a graduate of the University of Illinois where she received her degree in Library Science. At the time of her marriage she held the responsible position of assistant Regional Librarian, University of Tennessee Junior College, with headquarters in Waverly, Tenn.

The groom attended Mississippi State College at Starkville and graduated at the Milwaukee School of Engineering. He is now connected with the G. M. and O. and Southern Railroad in Corinth.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson are spending their honeymoon in New Orleans.

Mrs. Alice Miles, of Charleston, is the guest of Miss Abbie Barrow this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Saunders and daughter, Miss Winifred, visited their parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Saunders at Roback Plantation, Leflore County, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Townes have moved to Greenwood, Mr. Townes, prominent cotton buyer, maintains an office in Greenwood, and because of tire shortage finds it necessary to reside there. Grenada friends regret very much that Mr. and Mrs. Townes had to make this change and look forward to the time when they will return "home."

Lt. Sam Simmons, of Fort Eustice, Va., attended a world series game at St. Louis recently. Mr. Sam, Sr. who listened to the game over the radio heard Sam, Jr., yell.

Mrs. M. D. Lane, Jr., who has been with her husband in Waco and San Antonio, Texas the past summer, is at home. Sgt. Lane accompanied her home and left on No. 3 Monday to return to camp at San Antonio.

Miss Adele Hoffa spent several days in Memphis last week visiting her sister, Mrs. R. P. Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Dacus attended the football game in Louisville last Friday.

Colleagues to return home for the week-end included Leon Province, of Ole Miss, Dorothy Talbert, of Belhaven College, Jackson, Sue Vandiver, of Blue Mountain and Carolyn Whitaker, of All Saints Episcopal College, Vicksburg.

Miss Bessie Pheland Sharp, of Monroe, La., visited in the Sharp home here the past week-end.

Misses Robbie and Juliette Doak visited their sister, Mrs. J. P. Fisher and family at Jonestown the past week-end.

CIVIC LEAGUE

The Civic League meets in the home of Mrs. H. B. Spain next Wednesday, October 14th at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. George Grant spent last Thursday in Memphis.

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work--do not act as Nature intended--fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery. Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or the frequent urination. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is imperative. Trainees Being Planned In Vital War Industries Trainees graduating from the aircraft sheetmetal and riveting and machine shop. War Production Training courses operated through the vocational department of Grenada High School are being placed in vital war industries to aid our government in its efforts to make our armed forces the world's most powerful. Both men and women are being sent to war plants in adjoining and distant states where they are paid good wages to aid in the building of planes, tanks, ships, and guns.

Men and women between the ages of eighteen and fifty are invited to contact the U. S. Employment Service for enrollment forms. Additional information may be secured by writing L. E. Norsworthy, Supervisor, Grenada, Miss.

THROUGH A WOMAN'S EYE

By Mrs. W. W. Whitaker

The housing condition in Grenada becomes more and more acute, and as the demands for homes grow, the housing situation remains static.

Let me tell you of a few requests for homes and if any one reading this can make room for these splendid citizens who have in many cases given up the comfort of their own homes and have come to Grenada to reside, please call my office or call one of the other rental agencies. The idea is to get these people settled as soon as possible.

I have requests from two Colonels, one of whom has a family and wants a two bed room house or apartment, while the other Colonel wants only a place for his wife to stay as their two children are away at school. They want a nice hot room, efficiency kitchen and dining room and a private bath if possible. Will share the bath however. They will arrive November 1st.

I have a request from a Lieutenant who wishes to have his wife and little son here with him, as he expects his stay at Camp McCain to be permanent. He would like to have a small living room, bed room, kitchen and dining room and private bath. They will arrive the first week in November.

I have a request from a Captain who wants a two bed room, unfurnished apartment. He has one small child. They will be here between November 1 and 10.

These people know that in many cases where there is only one large old fashioned bath room, that the family will be inconvenienced to a certain extent, but back of all these demands and concessions is the fact that "These are war time conditions." We must make room for these people. Please list your available rooms, apartments and houses.

Walter D. Worsham Thanks Grenada County Friends

Dear Friends:

I wish to take this privilege to thank the people of Grenada and Grenada County for the nice presents given us on September 15th. And to have all for the sympathy and courtesy which was shown to us. I was a country boy drafted into the army. My intentions are to make a good soldier and to return safe. But if I get shot down on the battle field I want the boys to say there goes a good soldier, not to say one more hog out of the way.

By the help of you and the Grace of God, we will all meet again.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

Our overseer, Mr. Terrell, visited friends in Winona Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Scott have moved back to Indianapolis and the GCW will visit them every week.

Horn and Greenfield face a week-end of blues and sin unless our job customers rush in the work.

LI. H. Weaver, of Camp Croft, South Carolina, is a new subscriber whom we welcome to our mailing list.

Our personal stationery business has picked up, and we are now prepared to print any three letter monogram on personal stationery in addition to the name. No more appropriate gift could be given a man in service than a bunch of personal stationery, something he has constant use for. 100 sheets and 100 envelopes for $2.00; 200 each for $3.00.

We also print personal correspondence cards at $1.00 per 100. Come in and let us show you samples of what we can do.

Our boyhood friend Hattie Mearly Williams of Saratoga, Fla. has died of living without Grenada news and sent in the money for a subscription. Hattie was a good looking gal, and they say she is a beautiful woman.

Brother F. Z. Huffstatter, who is trying his best to christianize those heathens in Marshall county, visited friends in Grenada this week.

We did not have to dun, sue or threaten Volney Nason. On the contrary he came in like a man and paid off.

I saw a couple of fellows on the street the other day that I actually knew.

Our job customers were kind enough to keep Horn and Greenfield out of devilment last week-end. Thank you.

Speaking of Ferdinand, all of the members of that duo Misses Brown and McKell.

Dear Bilbo: why not do as I suggested; provide badges for reformed and deferred men so that they can march down the street with head erect and not, as they do, with a feeling that they are conspicuous.
